

Rules for use of the WHOIS search service

Published 15 December 2010, valid from 15 January 2011.

1. INTRODUCTORY CONCLUSIONS

Arnes, the Registrar and the Domain name holder initially conclude that:

1.1. These Rules are part of the General Terms and Conditions for the registration of Domain names under the top-level domain .si ("General Terms and Conditions");

1.2. All the terms used in these Rules have the same meanings as in the General Terms and Conditions, unless explicitly stated otherwise by these Rules;

1.3. In accordance with the General Terms and Conditions, Arnes inter alia provides the WHOIS search service;

1.4. From the moment a Domain name is registered, there exist contractual relations between Arnes and the Domain name holder in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions;

1.5. The basic function of the WHOIS search service is to enable data to be found on the Domain name holder of a Domain name and the technical contact person for the Domain name by entering a Domain name;

1.6. The purpose of the WHOIS search service is to provide reasonably accurate and current data on the Domain name holder, Registrar and technical contact person for Domain names, and hence the transparency and stability of operation of the domain-name system under .si;

1.7. Data obtained via the WHOIS search service are exclusively informative in nature.

2. OBLIGATIONS OF REGISTRAR AND DOMAIN NAME HOLDER

2.1. Domain name holders who submit a request for registration of a Domain name via the Registrar must provide all required data in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions.

2.2. Domain name holders vouch for the completeness, accuracy and veracity of data provided.

2.3. The Registrar shall select the appropriate type of object for a Domain name holder with regard to whether the Domain name holder is a legal or natural person. The object type may be organisation or person.

2.3.1. If the object type is an organisation, the Domain name holder shall be assumed to be a legal person.

2.3.2. If the object type is a person, the Domain name holder shall be assumed to be a natural person.

2.4. No subsequent changes to the object type shall be possible.

2.5. The Registrar shall be obliged to inform natural persons submitting Domain name registration requests of the possibility of creating and using a special function electronic mail address for publication in WHOIS for an individual object type. This electronic mail address is an alternative to the use of the personal email address, and is unrelated to any personal data.

3. SCOPE OF DATA AVAILABLE VIA WHOIS

3.1. Web service WHOIS displays Domain name, Domain name Holder and Registrar data. If Domain name Holder is a natural person, only e-mail address is published.

3.2. Command line WHOIS displays only Domain name and Registrar data. Domain name Holder data is not available.

4. RULES FOR THE USE OF THE WHOIS SEARCH SERVICE

4.1. Arnes provides the WHOIS search service either by the command line or via web service.

4.2. Arnes enables the WHOIS search service in the following manner and under the following conditions:

4.2.1. searching is only possible on an individual Domain name, and not on any other search keys (e.g. electronic mail, address, ...);

4.2.2. command line searching is restricted with regard to access by Internet protocol (IP) numbers;

4.2.3. by submitting a WHOIS query users agree to the terms of use detailed on web page <http://www.register.si/whois/whois-legal.html> and visible at each search;

4.2.4. Arnes reserves the right to place further restrictions on access to the WHOIS search service.

5. FINAL PROVISIONS

5.1. On the entry into force of these Rules on the use of the WHOIS search service, all other contracts or agreements governing the same subject shall cease to apply

5.2. These Rules for the use of the WHOIS search service shall enter into force 30 days after their publication on the Arnes website.

Arnes
Marko Bonač, MSc, director
Ljubljana, 15 December 2010